Every three months, we listen to your concerns and look at recent crime statistics to shape the things we will concentrate on for the next three months. Our priority(s) for the next quarter is:

Youth ASB

Hotspots include Mill Road Skate Park, Festival Hall, John Street carpark/Public Toilets. Increased patrols of Hotspots and reviews of CCTV take place to identify offenders. Please report any nuisance behaviour at the time it is taking place so we can respond, identify offenders, and secure any available evidence.

SPEEDING We listen and this remains a priority in the community. Various locations. NPT have been out and about with speed guns. Come along to the Police Surgery and let us know the roads that cause you concern.

WHAT'S BEEN HAPPENING

A WLDC member of staff was trapped in the public toilets by a group of male youths on 28th February whilst trying to lock up the premises. The shutter door was damaged. This is unacceptable and CCTV reviews and enquiries are being carried out. This affects the whole community as the toilets have now been closed for the time being. Please call 101 quoting INCIDENT number 0347 if you have any information that can help us identify who was responsible.
